CONSTITUTION OF THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION FOR THE AY 2025–2026

This is to announce the constitution of the Alumni Association at Kripalu Mahila Mahavidyalaya for the academic year 2025-2026. The Alumni Association has been established to strengthen the connection between the college and its former students, fostering a lifelong relationship. The association aims to create a dynamic network where alumni can engage with the college, share their experiences, and contribute to the professional and personal growth of current students.

Objectives and Functions of the Alumni Association:

- Strengthen the bond between alumni and the college by organizing regular meetups, events, and reunions to maintain strong connections.
- Provide a platform for alumni to share experiences, showcase professional achievements, mentor current students, and contribute to overall institutional development.
- Facilitate networking opportunities for students and alumni by organizing workshops, mentorship programs, and career guidance sessions.
- Encourage alumni involvement in various college activities, including academic and extracurricular events, as well as in offering guest lectures, internships, and employment opportunities.
- Maintain an up-to-date alumni database to ensure effective communication and engagement for future activities and collaborations.
- Promote and celebrate alumni achievements through awards, recognition programs, and social media to inspire current students and fellow alumni.

The Alumni Association will be led by a Committee Head and coordinated by a dedicated team consisting of the following student and teacher representatives from all departments. This team will be responsible for organizing events, handling communications, and managing alumni engagement efforts.
