CONSTITUTION OF THE PUBLICATION & MEDIA COUNCIL FOR THE AY 2025–2026

This is to inform all faculty members and students that the Publication & Media Council has been constituted at Kripalu Mahila Mahavidyalaya for the AY 2025-26. The Council has been formed with the objective of managing the college's official publications and media-related communications. It will serve as a central body for documenting, curating, and disseminating information related to academic, cultural, and institutional activities through various print and digital platforms.

Functions of the Publication & Media Council:

- To prepare and publish the college newsletter, magazines, reports, and brochures.
- To manage content for the college website, social media handles, and other official platforms.
- To maintain records and archives of major events, announcements, and academic accomplishments.
- To design and circulate press releases, invitations, and event coverage materials.
- To ensure proper branding and visual representation of the college across all communication channels.
- To collaborate with various committees and departments for coverage and promotion of events.

The Council will function in collaboration of following faculty coordinators and will include student members selected based on interest and aptitude in writing, editing, design, photography, and media communication.
